BIG DELEGATION

Of Red Men Planning to Go to Columbus Tonight.

Unless bad weather prevents from forty to fifty local Red Men are expected to go to Columbus this evening to participate in the demonstration in honor of Roy Emig, the new Grand Junior Sagamore of the order. The uniform rank is planning to go in full uniform.

Mr. Emig upon his return from Indianapolis will be met by a band and red fire will be burned along the street. There will be a big parade followed by a meeting at the city hall where there will be music and speeches by William O'Donnell, James F. Cox and others.

DRY TOWN BURNED

Diamond Destroyed by Fire Starting in a "Social" Club.

Diamond, Ind., Oct. 21.—Fire which originated in the rooms of a social club here destroyed twenty-three business houses with the majority of the stocks of goods. The buildings were all of frame construction. The loss is approximately $50,000. Diamond is a "dry" town and the social club was organized to evade the law by supplying its members with liquor.

Shook Center of Population.

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 21.—A howl that fairly shook the center of population monument near here, went up from every man, woman and child in this city when the word came from Washington that the population of Columbus for 1910 is 8,813, a gain of only 683 in the last ten years. Nobody here believes these figures are correct. Many have reported that whole families were missed by the enumerators and already a movement has been started to demand a recount.

Dangerous to Go Barefoot.

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 21.—John Puckett, the Tipton county farmer who never wore shoes, though the owner of 2,000 acres of fine land, appeared here yesterday with a heavy pair of shoes on. He used to say that God gave him a pair of good soles and he had no use for others, but when asked if his God-given soles had worn out, he replied: "No, they're still good, but since Tipton county went dry there are so many broken bottles around that it's dangerous to go barefoot."

FEAR DAMAGE FROM THE HESSIAN FLY

Farmers of Jackson County Report the Appearance of Their Old Enemy in Wheat Sown Early.

WARNING GIVEN BY PURDUE

Most of the Wheat Which is Injured Was Sown Before September Twenty-seventh.

Many of the farmers in Jackson county fear that much of their wheat will be damaged this fall by their old, destructive enemy, the Hessian fly. While some of the wheat has already been badly damaged, and a few of the fields, it is reported, are practically destroyed, it is difficult to determine at this time just how general the damage will be.

It is noticeable, according to the reports, that all the fields where the fly has appeared were sown before September 27. This was given especial attention this year on account of the bulletin published by Purdue University which advised all the farmers to defer wheat sowing until after that day. The bulletin which was issued by the Experimental Station warned against the fly and stated that less trouble would be experienced if the wheat was sown late.

Where the advice of the Experimental Station was followed the wheat has not been injured by the fly thus far, but as it is not so far advanced as that sown earlier in the fall, it may be damaged. The farmers believe that the wheat which was sown late will not be injured by the fly, if there is a period of cold weather soon. The fly appears when the weather continues warm for several weeks. Very little damage has been done by the fly during the past few years, and the wheat has been a very profitable crop.

A large amount of the wheat was washed out during the last high water, but many of the farmers who suffered from this flood will resow their fields. In the southern part of the county, the ground has been too wet to cultivate and very little wheat has been sown at all.

Flag Social.

The social given by Mrs. H. G. Stratton's Sunday School class Thursday evening at the First Baptist church proved to be a very enjoyable affair. The church was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting. For the program each member of the class was costumed to represent some country and gave a recitation describing the country she represented. A flag representing another country was carried and the audience was asked to write out the list of countries as the girls appeared.

The following is the list of girls and the countries they represented, the first by costume, the second by flag:

Helen Hadley—China, Cuba.
Ginecie Brown—Russia, England.
Gladys Tucker—Mexico, China.
Jeannette Black—Japan, Germany.
Fay Parker—Norway, Ireland.
Marjory Hagan—Germany, Japan.
Ruth Englekamp—Burma, Italy.
Mildred Mallen—American Indian, France.
Eunice Carpenter—Hindoo, Spain.
Lydia Welch—United States.

After the program, refreshments were served in the new Sunday School room and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The social was preparatory to the rally day of the Sunday School and church which will be observed next Sunday.

Euchre Party.

One of the largest and most elegant social events of October was the euchre given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Griffith, Miss Jean Griffith and Mrs. C. J. Rush, at Mrs. Griffith's home on Sycamore street.

A profusion of autumn foliage with cut flowers formed a most attractive setting for the event and at the close of the games there was an elaborate luncheon served.

The hostesses were assisted in keeping scores by Mrs. Robert Lienberger, Mrs. Meredith Lienberger and Miss Anna Hughes and the elegant prizes played for were awarded to Mrs. Louise Grove, who received a pitcher, of handsome pottery; Mrs. Jack Kehoe, a brass tray, and Mrs. Charles Crump, a cut glass dish.

The out-of-town guests included Mrs. W. L. Smith, of Albany, New York, and Mrs. John Groub, Miss Margaret Thompson, Mrs. Lynn Faulkner, Miss Nellie Robinson, Mrs. H. C. Johnson, Mrs. Bruce Shields and Mrs. Elmer Bollinger, all of Seymour.—Columbus Republican.

Meeting of Cattle Feeders' Association.

The fourth regular fall meeting of the Indiana Cattle Feeders' Association has been called to meet on the 19th of November at Lafayette.

The Purdue Experiment Station has on grass 80 choice fleshy feeders that will be placed on feed with different rations. These cattle will be finished for the annual spring meeting of the convention thus giving the members of the association the opportunity to see the cattle when placed on feed and when finished by different methods of fattening.

The program will consist in the valuation of the cattle, a talk on the markets by commission men and addresses by men prominent in the meat producing circles. The cattle feeding at the station will be reviewed and plans for the feeding experiments this winter discussed. It is hoped that a plan will be adopted whereby the members of the association will make annual reports on their feeding operations thus giving each member the benefit of the experience of the other members. Cattle feeders are cordially invited to attend.

FOOT BALL PRACTICE

High School Team Working on Several New Plays.

The members of the high school foot ball squad are practicing each evening, and are making much progress with several new plays which have been shown them by the coach. The team was taken to Franklin a short time ago where they witnessed a college game and were given some idea of several additional plays which they are working out.

The coach believes that the high school can have a strong team, if more speed can be developed and he is giving his attention to this. The next game is with the Brownstown high school on their own grounds, and as the local boys were defeated by this team in the last game every effort will be made to recapture the lost laurels. If Seymour wins the next game the third game will probably be played here on Thanksgiving day.

Donations Coming.

Every mail continues to bring letters to the Rev. Harley Jackson, pastor of the Central Christian church, telling of additional donations being sent here for the church auction sale to be held November 1, when an effort will be made to wipe out the church debt.

Oscar Fiegenbaum was the first Columbus merchant to make a donation to the sale. He donated a big rug, valued at $30, a $10 pair of lace curtains and a carpet sweeper.

U. R. Finkel sent a letter to the sale officials this afternoon saying that he would donate a trio of his best White Plymouth Rocks. He declined any payment for the birds and said the church could keep the entire selling price.—Columbus Republican.

CONSERVE THE WATER SUPPLY

One of Indiana's Chief Needs Pointed Out.

THE POLLUTION OF STREAMS

This Gross Factor, Together With the Rapid Deforestation of the State and the Gradual Decline in Ground Water, Points to the Urgent Necessity of Early and Intelligent Action in This Important Matter.

Indianapolis, Oct. 21.—That the streams of Indiana are in danger of being destroyed is very plain. Everywhere cities are delivering sewage and industries are discharging refuse into them, in many instances transforming beautiful creeks and rivers into open sewers. That the streams of Indiana are growing smaller very gradually is certainly true. This is also true of the beautiful lakes found in the northern part of the state.

As the streams all over the state are growing smaller and as the water surveys of the United States government show that there has been an average fall of five feet in the ground water within the last fifteen years, it behooves the whole state to look after its future water supply. We have almost completely exhausted our forests and called it development of the lumber industry and development of farming, and in doing so we have done ourselves an injury which, if continued, will probably exhaust our water supply before many years.

In addition to preventing the pollution of the streams, it is pointed out that we must provide for the proper reforestation of the land which is on the watersheds of the streams. When this reforestation is completed then the rainfall will be soaked up by the leaves and soft-shaded soil beneath the trees and will be paid out gradually. Thus the streams will be kept at a good level and will furnish, after filtration, an abundant and pure supply.

All business men's associations everywhere in Indiana, urges the state board of health, should not longer put off considering the question of the protection and the preservation of the streams and lakes. Will they wait until disease, death, discomfort and loss compel, or will they be real business men and attend to an important and imperative business matter in a businesslike way before the cost climbs to mountain height?

TRIBUTE TO DOLLIVER

Senator Beveridge Eulogizes Memory of Late Senator From Iowa.

Hartford City, Ind., Oct. 21.—Senator Beveridge yesterday afternoon, delivered an oration in memory of his close friend, Senator Dolliver of Iowa, whose funeral took place at the same hour. Concerning Senator Dolliver's last speech in the senate, Mr. Beveridge said:

"Finally, toward the end of the session, he made his last great speech. For months he had been thinking it over, pondering the vast questions of moral and intellectual liberty, of which he was to be the historic trumpet.

"I shall never forget that wonderful address. He was not able to make it, from a physical viewpoint. That morning he came to me and said: 'I am not strong enough, but I must do it.' That speech was perhaps the greatest of all his notable career as an orator. In it finally and forever he struck the shackles not only from his own intellectual limbs, but from those of millions of American citizens, the shackles of a blind, absurd, ignorant partisanship which for years criminal interests have welded upon minds and souls of citizens of both parties.

"All parties as such and all citizens as such owe Jonathan Dolliver a debt of gratitude that never can be repaid for that great utterance. I think that it ranks with the immortal speech of Burke to the electors of Bristol, which is said to have contained all the principles of personal conduct in public service as well as all general statesmanship."

IT'S UP TO YOU.

Ways of Remodeling
Your Last Season's Suit.

A SMART SUIT OF BROWN ZIBELINE.

Overhaul your wardrobe and find out just what you have.

There is your winter suit. You feel as though you could not wear it another season. But how can you afford another? Let's look it over carefully. The skirt is frayed, in the first place. Well, that can easily be remedied. This is a plan which will serve many times. When the hem of your cloth gown cuts out take a very sharp pair of scissors, insert at the largest hole and cut the edge of the hem through very exactly, so that there will be no jagged spots. Turn both the edges this gives in toward each other, the inner ones a little more than the outer or dress edge, and baste carefully. Then slip stitch by hand, dampen and press. Remove the basting threads before the final press, cutting them frequently so that there will be no pulling. After pressing sew on a good quality of mohair skirt braid, letting it come below the edge, and be sure that this braid has been shrunken, or at the first wetting the hem will all wrinkle.

But before going any further it will be well to clean all spots from the suit before attempting any further renovation. The coat is perhaps the most difficult matter. It is doubtless too long and has the long shawl collar of the past season, but it is not hopeless. Cut the coat to a becoming length, a little below the hips. Fit closely about the hips, then use the material cut from the coat to make the new sailor collar and wide lapels. Have the entire suit pressed thoroughly by a tailor, and, lo, you have a new and fashionable garment.

The smart suit pictured offers excellent suggestions for remodeling last year's finery. It is a three piece affair, and the coat is lined with a brown and tan silk which makes the upper part of the skirt and peasant bodice. A cream lace yoke veiled with brown chiffon brings the waist right up to date.

SCORE WAS ONLY TWELVE TO FIVE

And, As Usual, It Was In Favor of Athletics.

CUBS CLEARLY OUTCLASSED

Reversal of Form That Has Marked the Playing of the National League Champions in World's Series Makes Pitiful a Comparison With the Brilliance and Dash Which Mark the Work of the Philadelphians.

At Chicago— R.H.E.
Athletics... 1 2 5 0 0 0 4 0 0—12 15 1
Cubs..... 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—5 6 5
Batteries—Coombs and Thomas; Reulbach, McIntyre, Pfeister and Kling. Umpires—O'Day, Sheridan, Connolly and Rigler.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The American League champions took the third straight game from the National League champions here by a score of 12 to 5. The Athletics outplayed, out-hit and outclassed the local team in every department. Mack's men made fourteen hits off the three Chicago pitchers, including five doubles and a home run. Davis got three hits, a base on balls and was hit once in five times up. The fielding of the victors was also excellent, not an error being charged against them during the nine innings.

It was a dull, cheerless day for baseball. A stiff breeze from across the lake made it decidedly unpleasant for both spectators and players. Rain also fell intermittently. After it started to rain in the third inning the ball got so wet that fielders and catchers had difficulty in handling it. This accounts for most of the Cubs' errors. Reulbach started out to pitch for the Cubs. He lasted two innings, and then McIntyre took his place. The latter was driven out of the box in the third, after the Athletics had slammed the ball all around the lot. Pfeister took his place. The game was settled in the third inning, and it was really the most remarkable of the game. Besides seeing the retirement of McIntyre, this same round noted the bouncing of Manager Chance of the local team. He was ordered off the field by Umpire Connolly because he disputed too ardently a decision which gave Murphy a home run for a terrific hit into the crowd in right field.

The official figures of the game as given out by the national commission are: Attendance, 26,210; receipts, $36,751.60; commission's share, $3,675.15; players' share, $19,845.81; each club's share, $6,615.27.

Unless some one of the Cub pitchers can step in and show wonderful improvement, the series will be a shut-out. The Cubs have experienced a wonderful reversal of form. The comparison with the Athletics is pitiful. The Athletics have changed from a careful ball club into an aggressive one, and everything they start to do seems to have a successful finish. The dash and brilliancy is all on the Athletics' side, and the Cubs are outclassed.

It doesn't look as if there will be a Sunday game at all, and probably not one on Saturday.

Mr. Redmond and Mr. Devlin spoke at 8 o'clock last evening at a meeting in Tomlinson hall, under the auspices of the local Irish League. The meeting was called to order by Captain Christopher J. Accomplishments of Susie, a chimpanzee recently brought to this country by Professor Garner, eats her bread and milk with a spoon just like real children. He says that Susie can distinguish red from blue and both colors from white and she understands about twenty words of English. "She is only about eight months old," said Professor Garner, "and I bought her when she was only five weeks old. I raised her like a baby on milk. She is the most intelligent ape I have so far found, and I can distinguish about twelve words of her own language and hope to be able to interpret them all before long."

"We Are Seven."

So said the little girl in Wordsworth's well known poem. Many things, if they could speak, might make the same answer—the days of the week, for example, the notes of the musical scale, the colors of the rainbow. The Germans say that "all good things are three," but seven also is certainly a remarkable and distinguished number. There were said to be seven kings of Rome and seven sages of Greece. In ancient times men said that there were seven wonders of the world, but we have more than seven now. Those "wonders" of antiquity were the Colossus of Rhodes (a huge statue striding across the entrance to the harbor of Rhodes), the pyramids, the Ephesian temple of Diana, the mausoleum (or tomb of King Mausolus, the remains of which are now in the British museum), the hanging gardens of Babylon, the statue of Jupiter and the Pharos. The Colosseum, the catacombs, the Great wall of China, Stonehenge, the leaning tower of Pisa, the porcelain tower of Nanjing and the mosque of St. Sophia at Constantinople have been called "the seven wonders of history." There were seven famous cities of antiquity—Rome, Antioch, Nineveh, Babylon, Athens, Tyre and Carthage. Rome stood upon seven hills, and London city has seven hills also—Cornhill, Snow hill, Ludgate hill, Fish street hill, Bread street hill, Holborn hill and Tower hill.

Conundrums.

Why is a thunderstorm like an onion? Because it is peal on peal.
What did the potter say to the clay? Beware.

When is a fowl's neck like a bell? When it is rung for dinner.

What is the difference between a fool and a looking glass? A fool speaks without reflecting, and a looking glass reflects without speaking.

What is there that the fewer there are to guard it the safer it is? A secret.

Words have been added to the English language as the result of wagers. The third Lord Spencer bet that by cutting off the tail part of his overcoat he could bring into fashion overcoats so short that the skirts of the undercoat would show beneath. He won his wager, and "Spencer" became the name both of that garment and of the feminine one afterward constructed in its likeness.

LITTLE MUST GO TO DEATH CHAIR

Matt Crawford's Assassin Was Speedily Sentenced.

QUICK KENTUCKY JUSTICE

Thirty-Six Hours After the Assassination of Matt Crawford, Charles Little Had Confessed, Was Tried, Convicted and Sentenced to Death by Electrocutation, Breathitt County Establishing New Record for Punishment.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 21.—Breathitt county made a record for the punishment of crime when Charles Little, assassin of Matt Crawford, was sentenced to death. Little killed Crawford, and after thirty-six hours he was arrested, confessed, tried by a special grand jury and sentenced to pay the penalty by electrocution.

A mob had formed to lynch Little, who was started for Lexington under a strong guard of deputy sheriffs. Little confessed and, fearing mob violence, asked for an immediate trial. The jury was out six minutes and a verdict of guilty was returned. Surrounded by eight deputy sheriffs, Little was hastened to the railroad station just in time to catch the train for Lexington, where he was sent for safe keeping. Excitement was high and a lynching was averted by quick action.

Mrs. Little, who accompanied her husband and afterward broke down and confessed, compelling a confession from Little, was released from custody.

DEATH OF GOV. HILL

One Time Political Leader Dies Suddenly at Wolfert's Roost.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 21.—David B. Hill, ex-United States senator and former governor of New York, is dead at Wolfert's Roost, his country home.

About two weeks ago Mr. Hill was seized with a bilious attack while he was at his law office in this city, and although his condition was not regarded as serious at the time, his physician advised him to remain at home until he recovered. A cold developed and a few days later his condition grew alarming. He suffered a sinking spell, which resulted in his death.

New York, Oct. 21.—Everybody named in the testimony before the legislative graft hunt commission as having to do with the collection, distribution or receipt of the $500,000 fund which was alleged to have been used at Albany to defeat the anti-race-track bills in 1908, denied any guilty knowledge.

How to Tell if Your Hair is Diseased

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. 98 per cent of the people need a hair tonic.

Pull a hair out of your head; if the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased, and requires prompt treatment if its loss would be avoided. If the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy.

We want every one whose hair requires treatment to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it shall not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. It is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, to stimulate the hair roots, tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and cure baldness.

It is because of what Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has done and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

COMMITTED SUICIDE

Woman Stepped In Front of Southern Indiana Train Near Linton.

An unknown woman committed suicide Thursday afternoon near Linton by stepping in front of passenger train No. 3 on Southern Indiana. The train is scheduled to arrive here at 3:35 but was delayed a short time on account of the suicide. She was standing on the left side of the track and just before the train passed her she stepped in front of the engine. The engineer was unable to stop the train, and the woman's body was ground to pieces. The woman was evidently waiting for the train and had planned to take her own life in this manner.

As soon as possible the train was stopped. The crew made an investigation and declared that it was one of the most horrible accidents they had ever seen. The pieces of the woman's body were picked up and placed in a basket and carried to a farm house near the railroad.

STILL CONTINUES

The Interest at the Christian Church Revival.

"Some Things Seymour Doesn't Need" is the subject announced for this evening at the Christian church revival by Evangelist Roy L. Brown. There ought to be a big crowd out.

Last night a young lady responded to the invitation.

Plans for next Sunday include a special lecture-sermon at 3 p. m. on "The Man for the Moment." Let every member arrange to be at the Bible School and the morning service. Services tonight at 7:45 o'clock.

A Hunch For Tom.

A campaign dispatch from Hammond to the Star says:

Tom Honan, Democratic candidate for attorney general, also came to Hammond. He had intended to go to Indianapolis from Rochester, but after he had purchased his ticket and was about to board the train he remembered that he had left his overcoat at the hotel. "That was a hunch to me that I was headed in the wrong direction," he said, consequently he faced about and will beat the bushes with Mr. Kern in this section of Indiana for a day or two.

Dinner Party.

Miss Maude Naylor entertained very delightfully with a dinner party Thursday evening at her home on North Poplar street. The affair was unique in that the articles of the menu were prepared by the guests. The table was prettily decorated with flowers and fruits. Covers were laid for eight guests.

H. D. Murdock and family are moving from north Walnut street to the house vacated by Rev. and Mrs. James Omelvena.

MRS. HOWE'S FUNERAL

Author of Battle Hymn of the Republic Laid to Rest at Mt. Auburn.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Services of a simple but impressive nature were held over the body of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe at the Church of the Disciples Thursday afternoon. A throng of men and women from all walks of life and representing many nations and creeds were there to pay a last tribute to the remarkable woman, and the Rev. Samuel A. Elliott, president of the Unitarian association, delivered the eulogy, speaking of the rare endowments of Mrs. Howe nobly used and of the richness of her nature and the generous ways in which she gave of her abundance to the oppressed of all nations. After the benediction the congregation was allowed to look at Mrs. Howe's face, and the body was then taken to Mt. Auburn.

Packers Seek Delay.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Beef packers indicted recently for alleged conspiracy and combination in restraint of trade entered their appearance in Judge Landis's court, but instead of offering pleas, a consent order extending the time therefor was filed which many believe foreshadows an intention on the part of the defense to obtain trial if possible before some judge other than Kenesaw Mountain Landis.

BRIBERY CHARGED

An Indiana Man in Trouble With the Illinois Authorities.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 20.—Joseph H. Finkelstein, president of the Greenberg Iron company of Terre Haute, was indicted on a charge of bribery by the Sangamon county grand jury. The chief of police of Terre Haute was requested to arrest Finkelstein. Governor Denen has issued a requisition for the return of the Indiana man, and officers from this city went to Terre Haute to bring him here.

Finkelstein is charged in the indictment with having bribed highway commissioners in this state to buy goods from the firm he represents. W. G. Koch of Adams county, Illinois, alleges that Finkelstein gave him $82.50 for an order which the latter sold to the county.

MARVIN HUGHITT

President of Chicago & Northwestern Road Has Resigned.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Marvin Hughitt, who has been president of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company for nearly twenty-four years, has retired from that position to accept the chairmanship of the board of directors, and is succeeded by William A. Gardner, formerly vice president in charge of the operation of the road and also president of the Chicago, Minneapolis & Omaha road.

BIGGEST STEAMSHIP THAT WAS EVER BUILT

Enormous Dimensions of the White Star Liner Olympic.

Belfast, Ireland, Oct. 21.—The first of the two mammoth White Star liners, the Olympic, was launched successfully amid scenes of much enthusiasm. In accordance with the custom of the White Star line, there was no christening ceremony. The Olympic will be the biggest ship ever built.

The new vessel is of 45,000 tons. She has been building for twenty-two months, and it will be eight months longer before she is ready for her trial trip. The Olympic is a triple screw steamer, her principal dimensions being: Length over all, 882½ feet; breadth over all, 92½ feet; height from bottom of keel to top of captain's house, 105½ feet. She exceeds by nearly 100 feet in length and 13,000 tons any other ship afloat, and if stood on end would overtop the Metropolitan tower in New York by 182 feet. She is four times as long as Bunker Hill monument is high.

The Olympic will accommodate 2,500 passengers and a crew of 850. She has eleven steel decks and fifteen watertight bulkheads. A sister vessel, the Titanic, is building and soon will be launched.

They Didn't Bag the Birds.

Two New Jersey boys found a woodcock's nest with four eggs in it and laid a plan to capture a pair of woodcock as well as the eggs. John was going to place a bag over the female bird while she sat on her nest. Will was going to do the same to the male when he came to take his mate's place on the eggs, and then the boys intended to carry the nest and birds to the barn and see the birds raise their young. The boys found the female on the nest, and John was about to bag her when she shot into the brush so suddenly that two little fledglings fell out of the nest. John's shout of surprise brought Will to the spot, but before they could replace the birds the parent woodcocks came whirring through the bushes and darted at the intruders. They aimed at the boys' faces with their sharp bills, and the boys were incapable of defense. After trying in vain to shield themselves, they ran away in a panic. The next day they recovered their courage and stole up to the nest again, but found that the woodcocks had taken the little birds away.

DESTINY.

It is a proverbial saying that every one makes his own destiny, and this is usually interpreted that every one by his wise or unwise conduct prepares good or evil for himself. But we may also understand it that whatever it be that he receives from the hand of Providence he may so accommodate himself to it that he will find his lot good for him.—William von Humboldt.

WHAT IS A HEN?

[The United States court of customs appeals is to rule on the question of whether or not a hen is a bird.]

What art thou, hen? When thou wouldst sit,
Or set, all firmly on thy nest
Thou art, we vow and stay awake,
A pest.

And when thou cacklest when we'd take
A nap with no disturbing pothe
Thou art, we vow and stay awake,
A bother.

In summer when the garden patch
Tempta thee to stroll with cluck-
ings vague
Thou art, whenever we see thee scratch,
A plague.

The ministers, however, when They eat thy offspring served with dressing,
Pronounce thee once and yet again
A blessing.

In winter, when we have to pay
What'er cold storage men may hint,
Thou art, because of thy fair lay,
A mint.

And when old age hath ended thee
The plot once more begins to thicken—
In market then thou art, we see,
Spring chicken!
—W. D. Nesbit in Chicago Post.

BRIEF CATALOGUE OF THIS WORLD'S GREATEST THINGS

Washington Monument and College at Cairo Among Them.

The tallest monument is the Washington obelisk, 555 feet high. But the largest monolith is in Karnak, Egypt, being 106 feet high. The highest chimney, measuring 474 feet, is in Glasgow.

The largest aqueduct in use is the Croton of New York, which is thirty-eight miles long, but the longest ever built is in Peru, 360 miles in length.

The deepest coal mine is near Lambert, Belgium, 3,500 feet deep. The biggest dock is at Cardiff, Wales, and the strongest electric light is at the Sydney lighthouse, Australia, while the largest lighthouse is at Cape Henry, Virginia, being 165 feet high.

The greatest bank is the Bank of England, in London; the oldest college is University college, Oxford, founded in 1050; the largest library, the National, in Paris, containing nearly 3,000,000 volumes.

The largest theater is the Paris Opera House, covering three acres; the largest bronze statue, that of Peter the Great, in St. Petersburg, weighing 1,100 tons. The biggest stone statue is in Japan, forty-four feet high. The largest college is in Cairo, with over 10,000 students and 310 teachers. Damascus has the honor of being the oldest city.

The most costly book in the world is a Hebrew Bible owned by the German government, which a few years ago refused the pope's offer of $125,000 for it. The most costly medicine a few years ago was metallic gallium, which sold for $150,000 a pound, but radium is now the priceless gem of the mineral world, selling for more than that price an ounce.

Though orchids frequently bring prices that make the poor man stagger, the highest price for a single flower was given for a tulip in Amsterdam by an enthusiast, who paid $250,000 for it.

KANSAS CITY OPERATES FARM

City Prisoners Prefer Agriculture to Rock Pile.

Kansas City is successfully operating a municipal farm with city prisoners. These prisoners used to cost the city $220 a year at the workhouse. They are now earning an average profit of $120 a year at the city farm. What is more important, the farm as a reformatory influence is showing vastly better results than the workhouse ever showed.

There is seldom an effort to escape. The guards are few in number. Farm work is not so monotonous as breaking rock, and the human derelict takes more kindly to it. The city is growing fruit and corn and garden truck, and there is variety of employment.

Incidental to the raising of agricultural products there is live stock to be taken care of, there are teams to be driven, roads to be built, fences and buildings to be repaired—in fact, it is not a hard matter to find some sort of labor which is adapted to the individual prisoner.

The city sells the products of the farm and also makes use of a considerable portion in feeding the hands.

NEW YORK POLICE IN FOR REORGANIZATION

Mayor Gaynor Turns the Baker Administration Out.

New York, Oct. 21.—Police Commissioner Baker resigned yesterday afternoon after three brisk talks with Mayor Gaynor. In Baker's place the mayor put James C. Cropsey, a personal friend and a Brooklyn lawyer little known to the politicians. Frederick H. Bugher, first deputy commissioner, handed in his resignation an hour or two before Commissioner Baker let go. To succeed him the mayor named Clement J. Driscoll, who as commissioner of weights and measures had been forcing shopkeepers to honest courses.

Charles W. Kirby, the second deputy, did not observe the formality of penning a resignation, but the mayor, aware of Kirby's attitude, dispensed with the paper and appointed as his successor William J. Flynn, who has been chief of the secret service in this city for eleven years.

Immediately after the new executives of the department had convinced the clerks and doortenders at police headquarters that they were not practical jokers and that the Baker administration was actually over, they sat down to their jobs.

Shot Into Crowd of Boys.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 21.—William Rittenhouse opened fire with a rifle from his home on a crowd of boys who were celebrating Halloween prematurely, and Robert Moylan, eleven years old, fell with a bullet in his head just below the left eye. Rittenhouse fled and has not been arrested. As the bullet barely grazed the boy's brain, physicians think he is likely to recover, although his condition is critical.

Ship Foundered in Storm.

New Orleans, Oct. 21.—The British steamer Civilian has arrived here badly battered by the storm, having on board six survivors members of the crew of the Spanish bark Hugo en route from Central America to Spain. The rest of the crew, ten in number, were lost.

Amputation of Toe Necessary.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 21.—United States Senator B. F. Shively, who was compelled to abandon his speaking campaign because of an infection of the left leg from a bruised corn on a small toe, has returned to his home here, where his toe will be amputated.

The TRIUMPH Air Blast

Is the latest and greatest invention for producing heat from soft coal. Practically all fuel can be turned into heat and utilized in the room—no waste of gases, no waste of soot, no waste by having ashes banked against the fire pot. When we say we can save you one-third of your fuel bill is putting it mildly. The construction of the fire pot is so arranged that its radiation surface is double that of any other soft coal stove made. It is the only fire pot where it is absolutely impossible for ashes to bank against; the only fire pot where hot air has a complete circulation from top to bottom. The perfect fitting ash pit door, the ball bearing grate, the solid cast body are all features worth your while to consider in buying a stove. We will be glad to demonstrate the construction of the Triumph Air Blast and prove up what we say.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1910.

"The price of living has grown higher and higher until the purchasing power of a dollar is many per cent less than it was at the end of the last Cleveland administration," says Congressman Rainey. The dollar, at the end of the last Cleveland administration, was like the missing pair of boots at Fort Dearborn. That fort stood where Chicago stands now, at the beginning of the last century. On the approach of a Chicago winter, the neighboring Indian chief offered to trade, to the commandant, all the land between the sources of the north and south branches for a pair of boots. The commandant saw that it would be a good trade for him to make, but he didn't have the boots. The Democratic party was in power at the time and the purchasing power of boots was then high for the same reason that the purchasing power of dollars was high under another Democratic administration at the end of the same century—they were very hard to get. —Globe-Democrat.

How can Mr. Bryan ask the people to trust the Democratic party with power at Washington, when he has himself indicated in a public address that the party's record there does not justify trust. In his celebrated Texas speech following the adjournment of the last congress he said: "If the democrats go before the people and attempt to make a fight on the tariff, to what can we point? We can not point to the members of our own party and their records on tariff revision. Where is the democratic record to point to when we go before the people and ask them to trust us for another term?"

Well the Democrats are making a fight on the tariff this year and Mr. Bryan is taking part but he seems as forgetful of some past statements as Mr. Kern is regarding those bribery charges.

A prominent business man who heard Bryan's speech here Wednesday remarked that it was difficult to tell with which political party he was affiliated. Bryan was sent here by the Democratic party but in his speech referred frequently to the work of the Republicans and commended the progress that had been along all lines of government. He was even so favorable to the laws which have been enacted by the Republicans that he gave the Democrats praise for them. And yet, when all of these measures were presented they were fought bitterly by the majority of the Democrats in the senate and house. And yet Bryan is opposed to "stealing plunder."

The representatives of Purdue University who will give the demonstrations and lectures at Stanfield Orchard Thursday will impart some valuable information. Every farmer and fruit grower in Jackson county should make a special effort to hear what these men have to say regarding the care and attention fruit trees should receive.

TO VOTE FOR BEVERIDGE

Senator Beveridge's name will not be on any ticket. Senators are elected by the Legislature, and the only way to vote for Beveridge is to vote for Dr. George C. Wray. He will then go to the Legislature and help elect Beveridge to the United States Senate.

Come forward Mr. Kern, the public is awaiting your answer to Senator Shively's denial of those charges of bribery regarding his election. It would be expected that a candidate for United States Senate would defend his own assertions.

Senator Shively has been forced out of the campaign temporarily on account of a sore toe. Every one knows that he has had a sore toe for some time as far as Kern is concerned.

Where the Resemblance Was.

Sometimes girls know how to keep themselves from being bored even by a lover. Sis and Tom were sitting in the drawing room, and she was getting sleepy. "What time is it?" she asked. He looked at his watch and replied that it lacked five minutes of 11, and just then, being struck with an idea, he asked, "Why is my watch like you, my pet?"

"I don't know."
"Because it is very pretty."
"And why is my watch like you?"
"I don't know, I'm sure. Why is your watch like me, my dear?"
"Because it won't go," she replied, with a yawn.
Then the young man went home.

A Good House Plant.

"One of the nicest little plants for using in a window, either in pots set close together or in a box fitted to the window, is peperomia," says Grace Tabor in the Woman's Home Companion. "Its leaves are fleshy and shining, beautifully marbled, and veined with white, and half a dozen of the plants are as stimulating a bit of vegetation as one can have in the dry air of the ordinary living room. Peperomia maculosa is the variety commonly sold by dealers. Its low and spreading growth makes it especially suitable for planting in shallow boxes or pans.

"The soil recommended for peperomias is loose and well drained by mixing broken charcoal with it, and a depth of four inches suits them better than the conventional deeper pot. They do not need as much water as most house plants.

"They may be propagated very readily by leaf cuttings the same as some varieties of begonia—that is, a leaf may be slit through by two cuts crossing each other and laid on moist, warm sand until roots appear below accompanied by tiny leaves above."

The Modern Lady Godiva.

This is the costume in which the charming young American singer Bessie Abbott will appear when she stars this fall in a new light grand opera by Pietro Mascagni, called "Ysobel."

This opera is based on the story of Lady Godiva, who, as every student of

BESSIE ABBOTT IN STAINED GLASS ATTITUDE.

English history knows, rode through the town of Coventry clad principally in her hair. In costume Miss Abbott has a stained glass effect that is quite realistic.

A Fashion Tip.

"Are separate waists going out?" is a question frequently asked and is always reassuringly answered, "They are not."

Happily for the peace of mind of all womankind, the shirt waist never has gone out and never will.

As long as our skies rain dust and dirt so long does every woman feel that after one or two wearings her shirt waist is unfit for use and must go to be laundered. Therefore she makes her waists detachable and rejoices in the fresh, crisp one that she dons. To be sure, nothing looks cooler and crisper than the fresh, strictly tailored shirt waist, but to be strictly true its looks belie it, as it is usually very warm.

The hint is given that waists of contrasting colors are to be worn this fall, but woe be to the wearer unless managed with taste and skill. They are hard to handle successfully.

TO TEST LAW

New York Insurance Company Doesn't Like Indiana Ruling.

Indianapolis, Oct. 20.—A suit to enjoin State Auditor John C. Billheimer from revoking the license of the company or attempting to collect any taxes, fees, fines or forfeitures in addition to those already paid by the company was filed in superior court by the Continental Insurance company, a New York company, doing a fire insurance business in Indiana. The action is brought to test the application of the reciprocal insurance statute, and to test the right of the state auditor to proceed under the interpretation of that law recently advanced by Governor Marshall and backed up by an opinion of Attorney General Bingham.

THE STORM LOSS

Florida Did Not Suffer as Severely as at First Thought.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 21.—For the first time since Monday night Tampa is again in connection with the outside world. The storm did little damage locally, but passengers of steamships from Key West say the damage there will approximate $300,000. Reports from the east coast are meager, but trains have not run to Miami since last Saturday. It is said that Flagler's sea-going railway from Miami to Knight's Key was considerably damaged by the tremendous sea.

A Rainy Day Game.

Lots of fun can be had with a peanut tournament. Have four people at each table and in the center of each table have a large bowl of peanuts and a pair of tongs, such as come in candy boxes. Each person must try to remove the peanuts one at a time without stirring the other nuts. At the end of twenty minutes a bell is rung, and the one having removed the largest number of peanuts is awarded a simple little prize.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brookfield, Mo.—"Two years ago I was unable to do any kind of work and only weighed 118 pounds. My trouble dates back to the time that woman may expect nature to bring on them the Change of Life. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel much better, and I have continued its use. I am now enjoying."—Mrs. SARAH LOUISIGNON, 414 S. Livingston Street, Brookfield, Mo.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Milady's Mirror

"Now we're busy teaching women to be hobbie headed," said a woman who takes care of the hair. "With the hobbie skirts the old style of hair-dressing looks funny. It gives a woman a top heavy look to have her hair dressed high with a pompadour and puffs while her skirt is drawn in around her feet in hobbie fashion. So we devised the hobbie headed hair-dressing."

"To dress your hair hobbie style you take it and part it in the middle. Then you drape it back from the face in some soft way, and finally you bunch it at the back in a big mass, around which you twist a coil of hair or a band of ribbon or anything else that may strike your fancy. This makes the hobbie."

"While a hobbie may sound awkward for the head, it is really the most becoming coiffure we have had in years, for it does away with the top heavy chorus girl pompadour and makes a woman's head look more nearly ideal. Her head keeps its shape, and the knot at the back suggests to the uninitiated that it is merely a method of twisting up her own hair."

For Oily Skins.

When one's skin is oily do not try to conceal it by excessive use of powder. It makes the face pasty and clogs the pores.

There are various drying lotions that are excellent for this condition. Wiping off the face with pure alcohol has a drying effect on the skin. Various good lotions are sold for this purpose, but a teaspoonful of borax in a basin of water is excellent.

If you fear pure borax try this lotion: One tablespoonful of powdered borax, two tablespoonfuls of glycerin and a quart of camphor water. Dip a soft linen cloth in this and mop the face several times a day.

Do not make the mistake of using spirits of camphor, which is diluted in alcohol and much stronger. Camphor water is made by letting two ounces of gum camphor stand in water for twenty-four hours. The lump can be used repeatedly, as its size is little decreased.

What Are Your Eyebrows Like?

Straight and level eyebrows denote mentality. Musicians often have these brows that meet over the nose usually prove the love of authority and mark a capable person.

Beautifully arched brows usually adorn a rather empty forehead and indicate an opposite degree of intelligence to that shown by the long, straight brow.

When the arch is but slight the forehead may be strong, full of individuality and with a fine central spread. When like this, however, there is usually a lack either of time, tune or locality.

Very fine, distinctly outlined brows indicate an artistic nature.

Much elevated eyebrows show artistic perception of color and shape, good taste, organization and mathematical powers.

A Toilet Economy.

The particular hostess now uses individual pieces of soap in her guest room and gives to each new guest a fresh piece. Where much entertaining is done this means numerous odds and ends of fine soap.

One woman has hit upon the plan of using this for the children in a wire soap shaker, such as is found for dishwashing. The tiniest pieces can be thus utilized. A basin is filled with warm water and the shaker agitated until a thick lather is formed.

Another way to use up small pieces of fine soap is to put them into small cheesecloth bags and use as one would a bran or almond meal bag.

Low Shoe Peril.

The constant wearing of low shoes and slippers will spoil the shape of the ankles, especially if one must be much on the feet. An exercise which gives shapeliness to the lower limbs consists in standing straight, hands on hips, heels together, then rising slowly on the tips of the toes while drawing in the breath; then while exhaling it slowly return to the first position, feet flat on floor. Do this every morning and evening for ten minutes; also as much as you can wear high laced boots, drawing the laces as snugly as comfort will permit. Draw them in by degrees, not all at once.

Perfuming the Hair.

The perfumed hair cap has met with favor with women who are fond of dainty conceits, and one may be easily made at home. After the shampoo and at night these caps should be worn, and the fragrance is lasting. Fashion them after the style of the Dutch bonnet. Between two layers of silk put a sheet of cotton batting with plenty of sachet powder, using always the same perfume. Many women prefer the Florentine oris, but when you find a perfume to your liking use it all the time, as it bespeaks more refinement than having all sorts of essences about your garments.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Cure all forms of kidney suffering. Seymour testimony proves it.

W. G. Steinberger, 123 Mill Street, Seymour, Ind., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me so much good that I willingly recommend them for kidney trouble and lame back. I was in poor health for a long time and when a member of my family read about Doan's Kidney Pills, a supply was procured. This remedy strengthened my kidneys and removed the pain and lameness through my back and hips. I have since felt like a different person."

Bullets have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the army, and suffered for forty years. "But Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me when all else failed," he writes. Greatest healer for sores, ulcers, boils, burns, cuts, wounds, bruises and piles. 25c at Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Mrs. Lafayette Callaway, of Medora, was here this morning and went to Rushville where she was called on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. M. L. Wilkinson.

Points For Mothers

Marcel Braunschwig, who has written on "Art and the Child," makes a special plea for the artistic decoration of the nursery. He wages war against ugly toys, such as the pollywog, the jack-in-the-box and other grotesque playthings. He wants everything with which the child plays to be highly beautiful and artistic. He wants the illustrations on the nursery walls for that reason to be artistic. He points out that the child's mind is impressionable and that everything which it sees, touches or comes into contact with leaves its impress. Such decorations, he points out, are necessary in teaching the child cleanliness and morality. He says: "The objects in a home have, besides their market value, a more secret and quite as important value—they are discreet witnesses of our existence, intimate confidants of our thoughts. They gradually assume an expressive value because of the recollections and associations connected with them. Our hands by touching them leave on them a little of our physical being, and our eyes, so often resting on them, transfer to them some of our inner being. Again, those objects pass through various periods. They have their youth and old age and thus acquire an element of poetry. It is our duty to extract that poetic charm from the objects among which we live and to make our children appreciate that charm. Since it is chiefly for the sake of the aesthetic education of children that we advise parents to enhance their home, it is evident that they must take a peculiar care in adorning the nursery."

A Sensible Mother.

In these delightful days of free afternoon lecture courses, demonstrations, household economics exhibits and song recitals it comes hard for an up to date and much interested woman to stay at home because she has one or more little ones and no maid. If, however, she follows the example of a certain enterprising young house-mother she may very comfortably take in many a treat of this sort. The mother in question takes her set of happy, healthy and very active little twins with her—not only to concert and lecture, but every second or third Sunday to church as well—without any trouble to herself or any annoyance to the rest of the audience or congregation, because she also always carries with her a large stiff covered copybook and two well sharpened pencils. She always sits between the two little ones, and just as soon as they become restless she spreads the book out upon her lap, hands each child a pencil and then is able to give her attention to what is going on on the platform or in the pulpit, while the small boy and little lassie are busy printing out nursery rhymes and drawing pictures.

Training the Nervous Child.

This bit of good advice on taking care of nervous children is found in the last number of the Healthy Home: Indefinite regulations are essential in the training of the nervous child, because it is only by them that a habit can be gradually formed which shall serve as a barrier to shelter the child from its inheritance. Iron rules should prevail as to regularity of meals and bedtime. Displays of temper or of over-sensitiveness or of morbid emotionality should be met with firmness in the one case and kindly indifference in the other. They do not call for nagging or admiration or panic on the part of the elders.

There may be a good deal of common sense in the idea that strict rules are kinder than lax ones when nervous, high strung children are to be dealt with. When once the fact is learned that a regulation must be adhered to a child accepts it as a matter of course, and innumerable little struggles, as wearying to the child as to the parent, are avoided.

Schoolbooks a Heavy Load.

"Don't let the children carry heavy books to and from school," is the advice of a physician who has had much experience in children's hospitals. A mother testifies that she believes the heavy bag of books which her daughter carried to school every day had much to do with her nervous breakdown, says the Chicago News. The habit tends to make one shoulder higher than the other, to lengthen the arm or enlarge the hand disproportionately. When "home work" cannot be avoided let the child have one book at school and another copy at home. It will pay. Or, if that is not possible, at least do not let him carry his books always on the same arm or slung over the same shoulder.

A Sand Pile.

A sand pile is a good thing for the active child. A dollar's worth of building sand placed in a corner of the yard and confined by a few boards will keep the children from digging up the flower beds. That they must dig is a fact demonstrated by more ages of human life than any of us can look back over. This sand pile in some back yards can be protected from the sun and rain by a square of canvas stretched over it in the shape of a tent, or the pile can be put on the shady side of the house.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 23, 1910
REVIEW LESSON

GOLDEN TEXT:—And it came to pass, when the days were well nigh come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face. Luke 9: 51

As the reviews thus far this year have not come at or near the end of the quarter, I feel led to do with this as with the last review and give the lessons and Golden Texts and then a summary of the teaching as probably the most profitable way to handle the fourteen lessons.

Third Quarter:

No. 3. Peter's Confession, Matt. xvi, 13-28. G. T., Matt. xvi, 16.

No. 4. The Transfiguration, Matt. xviii, 1-8, 14-20. G. T., Matt. xviii, 5.

No. 5. Forgiveness, Matt. xviii, 21-35. G. T., Matt. vi, 14.

No. 6. On to Jerusalem, Matt. xix, 1, 2, 13-29. G. T., Matt. xix, 14.

No. 7. The Laborers, Matt. xx, 1-16. G. T., Matt. xix, 30.

No. 8. Nearing Jerusalem, Matt. xx, 17-34. G. T., Matt. xx, 28.

No. 9. Entering Jerusalem, Matt. xxi, 1-17. G. T., Matt. xxi, 9.

No. 10. Wicked Servants, Matt. xxi, 33-46. G. T., Matt. xxi, 43.

No. 11. Marriage Feast, Matt. xxii, 1-14. G. T., Matt. xxii, 14.

No. 12. Three Questions, Matt. xxii, 15-46. G. T., Matt. xxii, 21.

No. 13. Temperance, Gal. v, 15-26. G. T., Gal. v, 25.

Fourth Quarter:

No. 1. Wise and Foolish, Matt. xxv, 1-13. G. T., Luke xii, 40.

No. 2. The Talents, Matt. xxv, 14-30. G. T., Matt. xxv, 21.

No. 3. Judgment of Nations, Matt. xxv, 31-46. G. T., Matt. xxv, 40.

We must keep before us in all these studies in Matthew that we are considering Jesus as the King of the Jews. As such He was born, and as such He was crucified (ii, 2; xxvii, 37). He is mentioned in chapter i, 1, as "Son of David, son of Abraham," and we need to remember the unconditional promises to both, all of which shall be fulfilled in due time. There are many who see in Jesus only a Saviour by whom they may reach heaven when they have to die, but such is not the revelation of Him in the Scriptures. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords, the prince of the king of the earth, before whom all kings shall fall down and whom all nations shall serve (1 Tim. vi, 15; Rev. xvii, 14; xix, 16; 1, 5; Ps. lxxii, 11). The kingdom, which is to include all nations, with Israel as a righteous nation at the center, was plainly and fully revealed in the Old Testament and was preached by John and Jesus and the twelve and the seventy as at hand. That the Messiah of Israel should suffer before He should reign was also plainly stated and typified in the lives of Joseph, Moses, David and others, but that a long period, an age, should intervene

Latest Paris Hairdressing.

This eccentric coiffure arrangement is the latest cry of Paris. The front hair is softly twisted back from the face and braided in two braids. The braid from the left side is brought at the back to the right side and there arranged on to a cabochon over the right ear, and vice versa. Then the remaining hair at the back is made into finger puffs.

Some women to whom the bang is becoming may bring it into play, as suggested by the photograph.

FOREIGN MINERS PROTECTED

France insists on Blind Galleries in Case of Accidents.

Important experiments in the utility of safety chambers have been conducted recently in France, and as a result some of the leading colliery companies are putting "blind" galleries, supplied with compressed air, water, food, etc., and signal arrangements, in their pits.

In Belgium there must be a breathing appliance for every 200 underground workers in fiery mines of the second and third degree, with trained rescue brigades of not less than four men per set of apparatus.

Blood "Satisfies" Honor.

Havana, Oct. 21.—General Freye Andrade, the Conservative leader, was wounded in the hand in a duel with Carlos Aguiar, captain of the port, who headed the revolutionary junta in New York in 1896.

between the sufferings and the glory was not revealed in the Old Testament. This is the mystery kept secret since the world began which was specially revealed to Paul (Rom. xvi, 25, 26; Eph. iii, 1-11; Col. i, 26, 27).

When Peter, by the Spirit of God, confessed Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, then Jesus for the first time spoke of His church which He would build on that foundation truth. But Peter, not understanding the Scriptures nor the purpose of God, rebelled at the thought of Jesus' sufferings. Then our Lord taught that all disciples must be willing to suffer with Him, but that there would surely be a reward and that, though He and His followers were for a time to be content to suffer, the kingdom would surely come as shadowed forth in the great event of the transfiguration. With such a kingdom before us, made sure to us by a risen and glorified Christ, and having been made partakers of it by His great sufferings for us, by which we have the forgiveness of sins, we should walk worthy of such a kingdom, freely forgiving every one and by fasting and prayer overcoming the devil. As He steadfastly set His face toward Jerusalem, knowing all that awaited Him there, so we, His followers, must be steadfast, unmoved, always abounding in the work of the Lord (1 Cor. xv, 58). We must let His love constrain us to accept any manner of service gladly, not for reward, but in real gratitude to Him, quite certain that the Judge of all the earth will always do right. We should be inspired by the assurance that as truly as all the Scriptures concerning His humiliation were literally fulfilled, even to His riding upon an ass' colt, so literally will all that is written concerning His glory be fulfilled also. Therefore we should rely upon Him to keep these temples of our bodies wholly for Himself, cleansed by His word and Spirit, that He may bear through us the fruit He desires to His glory.

All that we may have to bear for His sake may be ungrateful, unreasonable and even cruel people should be accepted as the necessary pruning of the branches in order to the bearing of more and better fruit unto Him. The flesh is to be reckoned dead, and we are to live in the Spirit, walk in the Spirit and be led by the Spirit, and thus show forth His praises. Being made ready for His call either to be absent from the body or to be caught up in the body at His coming for His saints by His righteousness freely given to us, may the Spirit so fill us that our light may so shine before men that they may glorify our Father.

RHEUMATISM PURIFYING THE BLOOD THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE.

No case of Rheumatism was ever cured except by a thorough purification of the blood; just as long as the blood remains charged with fermenting uric acid poison, the painful disease will continue. The pains and aches of Rheumatism are simply superficial effects of the impurities in the circulation, and sometimes may be temporarily relieved by the application of plasters, liniments, hot cloths, etc. But the person who trifles with this dangerous disease by depending on local treatment alone, is certain to pay for the mistake with constant suffering later on. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood, and removes the uric acid from the circulation, so that the nerves, bones, muscles and joints are lubricated and fed with nourishing elements instead of being continually irritated and inflamed with the sharp, uratic impurity. When S. S. S. has cleansed and purified the blood, the pains and aches cease, all inflammation disappears, stiffened muscles are made pliant, and every troublesome symptom of Rheumatism is permanently corrected. ## PORTUGAL LATEST

Fruit of American Declaration of Independence Now Being Plucked on Iberian Peninsula of Europe.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

THE republic of Portugal is the latest recruit to the democratic army of nations. In a sense it is a child of the American Declaration of Independence and as such should be enthusiastically welcomed by all Americans.

Portugal in area is not much larger than the state of Maine and in population is but little bigger than New York city, yet the size of a world event cannot always be measured by a footrule or counted by the head. Portugal may start a fire in Europe that will burn far and consume several other thrones before the flames are quenched.

Poor little Manuel lost his crown overnight. The revolution was won almost as soon as started. Hardly had the world heard that there was fighting in Lisbon until it was met with the proclamation of the new republic. There was talk that Great Britain might interfere, but Great Britain had no time to interfere. Before Downing street had awakened to the fact that something was happening it was all over.

News Broken Hastily.

The first England knew Manuel, looking apprehensively behind him and all out of breath, arrived suddenly at Gibraltar, just in advance of the Portuguese boot. As soon as he could collect his nerves enough to write he sent back a letter telling his ex-subjects that his hurried exit had been involuntary, which they already knew, and that his leaving was in no sense an abdication. That was also superfluous, as it was not necessary for him to abdicate.

Portugal had attended to all the little details in that line. When a king's loving subjects chase him across the border, with the warning never to come back, it is not a matter of supreme importance whether he abdicates or not. Charles I. and Louis XVI. did not abdicate, but their heads did, which served the same purpose. Manuel's letter was something like a fired employee writing back to his boss that he had not resigned.

The stage has had many high kickers who could flick off a Johnnie's hat, but Mlle. Gaby Deslys is the first that ever kicked off a king's crown. You know about Gaby? She is the little French danseuse with whom Manuel was so smitten that he had her down in Lisbon and danced attendance on her before the shocked eyes of the nation. In Paris they called her the uncrowned queen of Portugal.

Well, Gaby Deslys (pronounce it De-lee) had not a little to do with bringing on the revolution. The Portuguese are not a nation of pruders, but they do object to their exalted ruler making love to a dance hall girl in public. It got on their nerves.

Blow at Hereditary Right.

Not only did they tire of Manuel's attentions to Gaby, but they grew a trifle weary of Manuel himself. They saw the incongruity of a twentieth century state placing at its head a boy scarcely out of his teens simply because he happened to be somebody's son. Hereditary kingship might not look so absurd were there also such a thing as hereditary brains, but that there is not the history of royalty abundantly testifies.

Since Portugal is something over 2,000 years old she concluded she was grown up and was entitled to a grown-up ruler. So she dismissed her boy king with his dance hall love affairs and elected as her president the most distinguished man of letters in the realm.

Theophile Braga is a poet, author and idealist, who lives in a cottage and who has suffered long for his republican principles. That the revolutionists chose such a man to head the new republic shows not only that their hearts are in the right place, but also that some poets are honored before they are dead.

Portugal is but one more link in the chain of republics that is to engirdle the world. The first link of this chain was the United States of America.

America Republican Progenitor.

When our Declaration of Independence was adopted there was not a real republic on the face of the earth. The Swiss republic did not properly come into existence until many years later. In 1776 Switzerland was under a cantonal government corresponding somewhat to our articles of confederation. The so called Dutch republic was aristocratic, and the stadtholder was virtually a hereditary king. Not only so, but there had never been a republic according to the new ideals. The republics of Greece and Rome and later those of Italy were only so in name.

The birthday of the American republic was really the dawn of the republican age in all the world, the glory of which we have not as yet begun to see. Herein is the chief honor of America. Compared to it our material splendor is but cheap and vulgar. We hold the hope of the world. Our torch

ings Gathering Strength as of liberty has shed a light into all lands, and it will be well for us if we feed the flame. The grafter, the mammonist, the reactionary, who do ought to subvert or regard popular government here in the land of its birth are not only enemies of their country, but foes to the best hopes of all mankind.

France First Follower.

The French revolution was the first fruit of the American Revolution. Then came Napoleon, who almost quenched the torch of liberty in Europe that we had started—almost, but not quite.

Napoleon was really the arch enemy of popular government. No man perhaps ever had a greater opportunity for good, and none ever more miserably failed to live up to his high possibilities. On the ruins of the French republic he erected his own empire. Over the budding or possible republics of the rest of Europe he placed as kings the incapable members of his own family.

Compare the career of the overrated Napoleon with that of the underrated and misunderstood Thomas Paine. Paine sought no position for himself, but gave the work of a life for the liberation of mankind. He was the apostle of freedom in three lands. He was the real author of the American Declaration of Independence, but unselfishly permitted the credit to go to another. He donated a year's salary to head a subscription when Washington's army needed money and later went to France to appeal for funds from the French king. He wrote on brown wrapping paper by the light of the campfire, using a drumhead as a desk, those immortal essays that were read at the heads of the regiments and that were described as "half battles."

MANUEL

KING ALFONSO

AND PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT OF NEW REPUBLIC.

Paine was at the birth of the French revolution and placarded Paris when the king took flight, helped to write the declaration of rights and was the consistent friend of France throughout the struggle, going to prison and braving death for his convictions. He penned the "Rights of Man," which set England on fire for liberty and which later helped the peaceful revolution which swept over that country. He even arranged with Napoleon to write a new republican constitution for England when the Corsican should make his projected invasion. But Napoleon failed him, as he failed in almost everything else of real worth to mankind.

Paine a True Forecaster.

Under the very shadow of the guillotine Paine risked his reputation by writing for religious liberty. He proposed the republic of Europe. He forecast most of the reforms that have occurred since his day, among them the emancipation of the slaves, the end of dueling, the age of peace, the single land tax and the rights of women. He wrote, "The world is my country, to do good my religion."

If Washington was the Father of His Country, to Thomas Paine will be reserved a yet higher title. When at last real history is written by men who can look above the fogs of prejudice Paine will be recognized as the father of the republican era in the whole world.

When poor Paine died he was followed to his grave by only a woman and her two sons whom he had befriended, by a Quaker preacher and a negro. Yet every new republic erected is his monument.

Such a man can afford to wait for the recognition of the ages.

Forever the right comes uppermost. And ever is justice done.

If that is true the world at last will put the name of Thomas Paine as high as before it has dragged it low.

Paine kindled the fire of independence and republicanism in America, and America in turn kindled it in other nations.

Long Battle In France.

After Waterloo France went through the restoration, the reign of Louis Philippe, the presidency and empire of the second Napoleon and finally emerged through the commune into a permanent republic forty years ago. It required eighty years for her to reach the goal, but it was worth more than eighty years of struggle.

Fired by the revolution in France, the Helvetic republic was established in Switzerland in 1798 and has grown in freedom from that day to the present.

Following the example of the United States, the Latin American colonies threw off the yoke of Spain and adopted constitutions modeled after our own. At our direct intervention Mexico was enabled to free herself from Maximilian. The last king left American shores when Brazil requested Dom Pedro to abdicate, a trifle more than a score of years ago. The glorious chapter of American republics was completed when the United States took up arms to free Cuba.

The influence of the American idea has accomplished more than the mere founding of republics. Directly or indirectly it has aided in the fight to establish every constitutional government. The reformation of Japan came directly from our friendship and example. The establishment of parlia-

Washington, Oct. 21.—A large number of importers in New York city, panic-stricken at the federal government's prosecution of the Duveens and the general activity of the customs authorities, have gone to Collector Loeb with admissions that they have profited through undervaluations and have offered to make restitution provided their names are withheld and no criminal proceedings instituted. The treasury officials are reticent in regard to these new cases, but acknowledge that the total amount involved is large. Some of the importers are described as literally shaking in their boots as the result of the Duveen prosecution and have gone to the collector with both hat and money in hand.

GLAD TO SEE HIM

New York City Dwellers Turn Out to Greet Roosevelt.

New York, Oct. 21.—New York city had its first real opportunity of sizing up the political situation so far as Mr. Roosevelt is concerned, last night. The meetings that the colonel faced, one at Terrace Garden and the other at the Lenox Assembly rooms on the east side, were wildly enthusiastic.

Colonel Roosevelt got to the Claremont rink in Brooklyn, where he made his last speech for the night at 10:10 o'clock. The rink was packed just as tightly as the police would allow, an estimate placing the number of persons in the building at 20,000. The applause at sight of the colonel lasted four minutes by the watch and seemed to bear all the earmarks of old-fashioned enthusiasm. Mr. Roosevelt spoke for thirty-five minutes, repeating for the most part speeches which he had recently made.

Young Woman's Pitiable State.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 21.—Ethel Taylor, aged nineteen, is under restraint at the jail, awaiting an inquiry by an insanity commission. She said she wanted to cut off her head with a hatchet to relieve pain. Two years ago a practical joker pulled a chair away as she was sitting down and the injury mentally unbalanced her.

Then He Turned in Alarm.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 21.—Richard Bannigan, unaware that his machine had caught fire from a short circuit and was blazing, drove a taxicab at high speed through the business section. When the fire had burned to where he could feel the heat, he escaped from the seat and turned in an alarm.

BRYAN ON HILL

The Commoner Pays Tribute to Sage of Wolfert's Roost.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 21.—When W. J. Bryan was informed of the death of D. B. Hill, he seemed startled. "Mr. Hill's death," said Mr. Bryan, "removes the most experienced politician of our party in the practical workings of politics, and in that diplomacy that is required in dealing with men. Mr. Hill was without a peer among his Democratic associates and there were few in the opposite party that ranked with him. He was a man of great ability, and during his life no charge could be brought against his personal character. The termination of his career brings a shock to his friends, and his death will be sincerely mourned."

The Tribute of a State.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Governor White has issued a long proclamation telling of David B. Hill's public career and the honors bestowed upon him as a lawyer and public man, and directed that the flags upon all the public buildings of the state, including the armories and arsenals be displayed at half-staff until sundown on the day of the funeral and that the citizens of the state unite in appropriate marks of respect to his memory.

Want New Library Building.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 21.—The Indiana State library association in convention in this city, took action in favor of a new building at Indianapolis for the state library. It was the sense of the meeting that the library should be divorced from all other state departments as soon as possible, and officials expressed the hope that the next legislature will appropriate money for the new building.

General Thomas T. Eckert, warm friend of Abraham Lincoln, and for ten years president of the Western Telegraph company, is dead at his summer home at Long Branch, aged eighty-eight.
